DETAILS:

On 04/16/2011 at 10:51am, Deputies from the Lane County Sheriff's Office and Troopers from the Oregon State Police responded to the Lowell area regarding suspicious conditions.

A 9 year old male was near the Lundy Elementary School when he was approached by a lone unknown male in a black truck with a black canopy. The male in the truck told the juvenile male to get in the truck as "his parents wanted him" further stating, "You need to hurry and get in the truck, your parents want you."

The 9 year old male fled to a friend's house and the unknown male drove away. It was reported that the suspect had a knife attached to the outside of his pocket and another one on the visor of the truck, but the victim was not threatened with the knives and was not injured.

Responding Lane County Sheriff's Office Deputies and Troopers from the Oregon State Police patrolled the area, but were unable to locate the vehicle or suspect.

Anyone with information regarding this call is encouraged to call the Lane County Sheriff's Office.
