NATURE OF STORY: Corrections Captain Doug Hooley Earns National Certification

LOCATION:

DETAILS:

Lane County Adult Corrections Captain Doug Hooley has received the national designation of Certified Jail Manager through the Jail Manager Certification Commission (JMCC), by authority of the American Jail Association (AJA). Captain Hooley is one of the 349 jail professionals nationwide to have achieved this designation, and one of only three in Oregon.

This certification has been achieved through the successful completion of a rigid experiential background application and an intensive four-hour electronic examination prepared by the JMCC and AJA.

Certification in jail management is a demonstration of competency and professionalism in the field. The jail manager's certification documents the mastery of a strong level of knowledge in the specialty and demonstrates continuing education and growth.

Captain Hooley began his career with the Lane County Sheriff's Office in 1988. He has worked in the Adult Corrections Division his entire career. Captain Hooley began as a deputy sheriff, was promoted to sergeant in 2002, lieutenant in 2006, and captain in 2008.
